

Autumn Term Curriculum 2016 - Year 7

English	Class reader - Holes - by Louis Sachar. Developing knowledge of character, skimming and scanning, tension, cause and effect. Inference and deduction, point, evidence and explain mood and imagery.			Writing: Roald Dahl Day - writing in his style. Newspaper report/persuasive writing.
Maths	Transition unit - number	Number/algebra sequences	Shape and measures/angles	Handling data/probability, key processes	Fractions, decimals, percentages, ratio, proportion
Science	Living systems - cells, skeletal and muscular systems			Particles - changes in state, dissolving and separation
History	Medieval realms - capture and control - a study of major features of Britains Medieval past.			The development of the monarchy and significant events
Geography	Population and Migration - a study of factors influencing population distribution, how populations change and what influences migration			Population and migration - a study of factors influencing population distribution, how populations change and what influences migration
Art	Drawing - Using shape, form, tone, perspective and composition.			Painting, collage, mixed media - analysing stylised art forms such as Cubism.
Design & Technology	7A: Resistant materials - bookends, 7V: 3D textiles			7A: Resistant materials - bookends, 3D sculptured lamp shades 7V: 3D Textiles/food technology
French	Talking about likes and dislikes, using regular 'er verbs & avoir, describing yourself and others			Understanding adjectival agreements, talking about food, schools in France. Christmas and winter celebrations
Spanish	Introductions	Numbers to 31	Alphabet / classroom vocabulary	Describing families	Talking about pets
Music	Blues - understanding the history and features. Developing improvisation and ensemble skills			Jazz - Understanding and demonstrating the conventions of jazz by performing and composing as individuals and as a class
PE	Teeball/ Fitness			Hockey/ leadership
Games	Rugby/ Paralympic games			Football/ Dodgeball/Benchball
RE	Who am I?	Chriistianity and Sikhism		Sikhism	Christmas
Computing	E-safety		Multi-media presentations	Refining internet search techniques, researching specific projects
PSHCE	Democracy	Self awareness/feelings		Self awareness and awareness of diversity	