

A guide for parents for children applying to Middle School, September 2018.

This information explains how to apply for a Middle school place for children currently in Year 4 in First schools (born between 1 September 2008 and 31 August 2009).

Hertfordshire County Council operates the admission process on behalf of both Greneway and Roysia Middle Schools. The admission arrangements for 2018 for both schools are available on the individual school websites and in the Schools Directory on Hertfordshire county council's website:

Important: The Royston Schools Academy Trust (RSAT) is the admission authority for both Greneway and Roysia Middle Schools and Meridian Upper School.

The Trust is proposing authority to amalgamate all three schools, to create a single all through school for pupils between the age of 9 and 18 (Years 5-13) from September 2018. This proposal is subject to approval following a full consultation process which will be undertaken during the 2017/18 academic year.

If the Trust's proposal is approved, a successful application to either Greneway or Roysia Middle School will result in your child attending a single all through school in Royston in September 2018.

The application process:

You must indicate your preferences for Greneway and/or Roysia School on the application form. However, please remember that if the Trust's proposal to create a single all-through school is approved, and you are allocated a place at either school, your child will attend the new all-through school in September 2018. If the proposal is agreed before places are allocated, your child will be allocated a place at the new school.
